ADULLAM HOUSE IS A SAFE HAVEN FOR THE CHILDREN OF INCARCERATED PARENTS.

“The greatest thing you can do for another, is not just to share your riches, but to reveal to them their own”

Benjamin Disraeli

Jakori (center) was missing all four front teeth, on the day of her K5 graduation -but that didn't stop Miss Personality Plus! She was brimming with pride!

Does it work? That's what we all want to know.

Does it work?

Does the work that we do at Adullam House produce the fruit that we hope for? Do these kids—these children who were born to incarcerated parents—do they really make it? Does the damage done in the past keep them trapped in a vicious cycle of sin, shame and crime, or can the Gospel really set them free? Well here is your answer; the long awaited fruit of our labors. Raising children is a marathon and not a sprint, but last month saw the graduation of two of our 18 year olds, who have come all the way through Adullam House Christian Academy, from K4 to 12th grade. How thrilled we were, as they testified of God's goodness in their lives. They sang, played piano and shared about the Lord, blessing the hearts of all present. Colton is going on to Summit International Bible College, while Adri's dream is to work at the very school from which she is graduating. Yes it works and it doesn't get much better than that!

Miss Tess and Miss Adri, (our newly graduated high school student), were the dedicated coaches for our Adullam House Knights U6 Soccer Team this summer! While a couple of the players ran in circles around the field, or sat down to examine a bug or two, in the middle of the game, a few of them had developed some real skills over the past year. Billy (#7) was definitely their secret weapon. India (#6) announced that she wanted to be a football player when she grows up and Jakori (#4), was just glad that she is finally tall enough to reach the top of the goal post! Our staff are just thrilled to watch them learning some new life skills, like team work, cooperation and following instructions, as well as a feverish determination to be the CHAMPIONS!

—more like the Filthy Four!

After a crazy game, in which they were pelted with colored corn starch, these “buds” were proud of their war wounds! Kids Camp and Youth camp, this summer, were amazing times of fun and life changing encounters with God. Many of kids came home talking about how the Lord touched their lives and changed their hearts. They quoted the preacher both in English and in Kenyan or Swahili and everyone has decided to become a missionary!

(And below) Mr. Coe Sawyer’s great coaching took our U12 Team all the way to State Games. This was the first time that Adullam House was represented at State Games! Thanks to Mr. Coe, who did all the leg work by finding sponsors for our kids’ hotel rooms, food and uniforms, most of our expenses were covered! Thankyou Mr. Coe!

It never gets old !

It doesn't matter how many times a new baby arrives at Adullam House

- it never gets old!

The fact that God would entrust us with each precious life, still overwhelms me.

It has been several years since I have been the one appointed to go to the hospital, to pick up a new born baby whose mother is in prison. It used to be my regular responsibility, but a bout with cancer, several years ago, meant that others were delegated to take my place.

So last week, thankful to be alive and to be able, once again, to collect this new little person and bring him safely home - well, the joy of the task just filled my heart.

I stood back and watched with thanksgiving, as the young ladies who work in the nursery, crowded around baby Joseph, eager to hold their new charge, and to stroke his little face.

These babies of prisoners, are cuddled and rocked, day in, day out, by a team of dedicated girls and senior ladies who are here for no other reason, than that they love the children. Some of our older ladies have volunteered for more than a decade! They are Gods' means of bringing love, stability and peace into these little lives at the most tumultuous, despairing time the incarcerated mother will ever encounter. This is God's work. Thank you to all of you who have prayed for us and given of your finances to Adullam House.

You have rescued many babies and children (like the two little girls shown left) by your kindness and generosity and for that we are unspeakably grateful!

In order to walk in someone else's shoes you first have to take off your own.

The babies who come to Adullam House arrive within 48 hours of birth, after mom has returned to the Prison. From this point on, Adullam House meets all the needs of each child. We provide all clothing, food, doctor visits, transport, special needs and trips, visits with mom at the prison—and lots of hugs. For the older children it includes school uniforms and curriculum, summer camps and vacations, beautifully decorated bedrooms—and lots of hugs. The life they live here, is as idyllic as we can possibly make it. Thank you for helping us to pour the love of Jesus into these little ones, as long as we possibly can.
